The trend of reading of books has been declining gradually all over Pakistan. The major cause of this decline is high price of books. The Price of books on a common subject is more than that of C.D. Moreover, G.Ds. on different topics are easily available. Secondly, the growing use of internet has also affected the sale of books. A young boy would prefer to get some internet hours rather than a book. The price of books should be kept within the approach of common students so that all students have easy access to the books of their choice to quench their thirst for knowledge. Reading opens the mind whereas C.D derails it.
